Mine operators, wholesalers and retailers from the western provinces are included in the Western Canada Fuel Association membership. "Action Must Be Taken Now" has been adopted as the theme of the Saskatoon meeting.

Crawford Thomson, of Windup, president of the Association, will preside at business meetings during the three-day session. It is expected that considerable discussion will be devoted to plans for further development of Western Canada coal resources and to the necessity for impressing the Canadian public with the important contribution made by the Western coal industry to Canadian economy.

GOOD ADVICE

"Don't ever try to fool your mother, boys," warns a wise man.

Remember the young man who pawned his nice suit of clothes and didn't want his mother to know about it? He finally redeemed them and brought them home in a suitcase. While he was busy in his room, his mother, in the parlor, started to unpack the suitcase. She found the pawn ticket on the coat and called:

"Kitchener, what is this tag on your coat?"

Kitch lost very little time in calling back: "Oh, I was at a dance last night mother and checked my coat."

A moment later mother came across the troumers, tagged in the same way. With a puzzled tone she asked: "Kitchener, what kind of a dance was that?"

Lovie: "Every time I kiss you it makes me a better man."

Dovie: "That's nice, but you don't kiss me with them, their no utilization certificates."

The guest of honor was presented with a beautiful travelling case from the 22 guests present.

Border Crossing Rules For Tourists From United States

With the approach of the holiday season, many will be planning to cross the U.S. border enroute to the east, west or south.

Others require information for friends in the U.S. who may be planning to come to Canada this year. Doubtless many of these motor visitors will come to Alberta, attracted by the scenic attractions of the province and its great national parks.

A summary of regulations for those who wish to enter Canada has been issued by the department of trade and commerce at Ottawa. This says:

Canada welcomes the tourist with the minimum of border regulations and delay. The necessary formalities at the border take but a few minutes. bona fide tourists will experience no trouble and will receive every courtesy from the various officials.

a At Port of Entry

They simply report to the Canadian immigration and customs at the port of entry (normally they will be approached and interviewed by the officers) answer the necessary questions and obtain the requisite permit for admission of car or outfit.

A tourist may leave Canada either by port of entry or by any other port.

Passports—Permanent residents of the U.S. entering Canada as tourists do not require passports. Decision regarding personal entry rests with the examining immigration officer and as a general rule there is no difficulty or delay at the border.

"It is suggested however, that the possession of identification papers will facilitate entry into Canada in case the examining officer should require documentary proof to satisfy himself as to the bona fides of the tourist.

Citizens of the U.S. by naturalization should be prepared to present their certificates of naturalization and residents of the U.S. who are not citizens thereof should be prepared to present proof of their legal entry into that country.

(Note to tourists from overseas countries. Persons other than British Subjects and U.S. citizens) who are residents of Europe proceeding to Canada as tourists or visitors must have their passport vised by a Canadian immigration officer stationed on the continent of Europe. This regulation is applicable to such persons travelling in direct transit through the U.S. as well as those arriving at Canadian ocean ports.

Persons other than British subjects and U.S. citizens) in the United States under temporary status, upon entering Canada as tourists or visitors are required to have valid passports in their possession.

Returning to U.S.

American citizens returning to the United States may be required by the examining immigration officer at the border to produce evidence of their citizenship. American citizens have a constitutional right to return to the United States but the onus of proving United States citizenship is on the traveller.

It is advisable that persons departing from the U.S. equip themselves with evidence of their right to return, in form of such identifying documents as a passport, either valid or expired, birth or baptismal certificate, voter's certificate, tax receipts, letters of identification from a bank manager or responsible official, personal letters, motor car driver's license or similar papers. Identification papers bearing the owner's signature or photograph are helpful.

It is suggested that naturalized citizens carry with them their naturalization certificates.

The Chorus and its conductor, Mr. Richard Eaton, wish to thank their sponsors and friends in Didsbury, Blairmore, Pincher Creek, Cardston, Raymond, Taber and High River for their cooperation and support and sincerely regret the circumstances which have made unavoidable the concerts scheduled in those towns.

Creston Blossom Festival May 14-15

Each spring when the apple trees are in full bloom Creston Valley delights the senses with a profusion of delicate sweet-smelling pink and white blossoms. Walking or driving along the country roads in the cool of the evening after a hot day is like being in fairyland.

In this picturesque setting the promise of a fruitful harvest is celebrated by the crowning and enthroning of a Blossom Queen to reign over two days of fun and frolic. Americans from Idaho and Montana and Canadians from all the Kootenays mingle here in a holiday spirit of good fellowship.

Visitors to the Blossom Festival on Friday and Saturday, May 14 and 15 will be well accommodated in the fine modern hotels and restaurants that have been built during the last year. The coming Holiday-Blossom Festival promises to be more fun than ever before. Aeroplane rides will give the visitors an opportunity of seeing the checkerboard of blossoms from the air.

Some lucky visitors to the celebrations will be able to drive home in a new Ford Tudor Sedan which is being given away. Go to Creston and have the time of your life at the Blossom Festival.

COLOR BLINDNESS

The following is a statement from the Inter-Society Color Council committee on Color Blindness. It is worth noting since a great many men are deficient in RED-GREEN vision.

No case of congenital color deficiency has ever been cured by corrective training; but many people, particularly too, have been fooled into thinking they or their patients have been cured. A red-green confuser is seldom dangerous unless he thinks he can see as well as anybody.

In this connection another resolution is of interest.

That the Association of Schools and Colleges of Optometry heartily concurs in the condemnation mentioned and urges that optometrists refrain from claiming to be able to alter the physiological mechanism of color vision by means heretofore advocated for this purpose.

The gist of the story is that if you have a deficiency in color vision its yours to keep. At least one man in ten has some deficiency in his red-green color vision.

NOSE BREATHING

Air breathed through the nose reaches the lungs filtered and purified, so if you want to stay healthy, breath breathing difficult or favors mouth-breathing, should be discussed with the family physician, so that the trouble may be cleared up.

Encouraging The Arts

THERE HAS BEEN CONSIDERABLE COMMENT in recent years upon the fact that more emphasis is placed upon the importance of scientific and industrial progress than on the advancement of the arts. The keen competition which is characteristic of industry, and the urgency which has of late been placed on the gaining of advanced scientific knowledge, have resulted in great progress being made in both these fields, while much less attention has been paid to the need for encouraging painting, writing and other forms of creative art. In spite of this, Canada has produced fine work in almost all branches of the arts and there are many Canadians who feel that more encouragement and support should be given to those who carry on this work. To encourage the arts means not only to support the work of artists, but to raise cultural standards throughout the country and to bring that side of our national life to the level of this Dominion's international status in science and commerce.

Proposals Made By Arts Council

This subject was discussed at a recent meeting of the Canadian Arts Council, an organization which is deeply interested in the cultural aspects of our national life. At the meeting a number of proposals were made which would be in the interests of raising cultural standards in the Dominion. The suggestions included the establishment of a national library and of an organized, representative national theatre group which might occasionally play in other countries. The introduction of better methods of teaching art in the schools, and of training art teachers was also proposed and it was suggested that the scope of community centres should be enlarged to emphasize not only physical recreation, but artistic creation and appreciation. Increased recognition of the work of Canadian sculptors in our architecture was advocated by the Council, as was the encouragement of Canadian composers through direct subsidy, so that their work could be published and become known.

Canada Still A Young Country

It is commendable that an effort is being made to encourage the creative work of Canadian artists and to foster knowledge and appreciation of their work on the part of the public. Canada is still a young country, and it has been necessary that a great part of the energies of her people should have been directed towards the more practical side of nation building. Nevertheless, Canada has produced artists, writers and musicians of a high order, many of whom have won international recognition. Western Canada is well represented in all forms of creative work and the West has, among its people of foreign origin, a wealth of culture which has already contributed a great deal to Canadian art and literature. Substantial financial support and widespread public interest have done much to bring Canada to the front among other nations in science and commerce, and it is not unreasonable that the Canadian Arts Council should seek support in raising the cultural level in Canada so that the arts may receive recognition, nationally and internationally, in keeping with that which has been achieved in other fields.

ATOM GOES TO WORK IN NEW EXPERIMENT

LONDON—Some of the buildings at Britain's Atomic Research Station are being heated by atomic energy as an experiment. The director of the station, Sir John Cockcroft is arranging for this to be done by using waste heat from the big atomic pile. Heat is generated by the splitting of atoms in this pile and a cooling system is used to remove this waste heat elsewhere. It will be fed through pipes to the buildings.

Sees End Of Big-Money 'Spiels

TORONTO—Men who follow curling for its own sake "spell the doom" of the big-money tournaments with their heavy entry fees, Colin Campbell, president of the Canadian Curling Association, said.

He was commenting on a recent announcement that Rosemont curling club will hold its first annual $15,000 "spiel" next winter.

"I have never found a bonspiel that to my mind was worth putting up $10,000 to attend," said Campbell. "People who curl for its own sake are unwilling to pay the high entry fee . . . they don't mind being beaten by a crack curling rink, but they don't want to pay $100 for the privilege."

He mentioned a motion passed at an association meeting two years ago which deprecated such big-money affairs.

"There's no disciplinary action which could be taken against them," he said. "The curlers themselves will take care of most accidents," he said.

WOMEN GUARDS FOR JAPANESE PALACE

TOKYO.—The Palace Guard, once the roughest, toughest outfit in all of Japan, is to get women recruits. The women will be more polite to visitors than the 450 gruff-voiced policemen now guarding the moat-encircled palace.

The Imperial Household cautiously announced the addition of the women—20 to 30 of them. The Japanese regard the women with indifference.

"Cheesecake around the palace," snorted one westernized Japanese.

NO MORE BOBBIES

VICTORIA—Another of the typical English fashions of Victoria—the "Bobbie" uniform of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police has disappeared. The city's finest now wear lapelled jackets and caps, with blue shirts and ties.

Victoria's young men eat whale steaks while in training. Pretty heavy diet for an athlete!

CELEBRATE 25th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—Their Majesties King George VI and Queen Elizabeth attended a service of thanksgiving at St. Paul's cathedral in commemoration of the 25th anniversary of their wedding. Accompanied by Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh, and by Princess Margaret, and with a sovereign's escort of Household cavalry, the King and Queen left Buckingham Palace and drove to the cathedral.

Safer To Live In Canada

TORONTO—It is safer to live in Canada than in the United States, Lloyd A. Blanchard of the Federal Safety Council, Washington, said. The accidental death rate in the U.S. is 70.8 per 100,000 population, and in Canada 56.6.

Industrial accidents in Canada have decreased, he told the annual meeting of the Industrial Accident Prevention Associations, but industrial injuries have increased.

Home and highway were still the most dangerous places to be, sixty-one per cent of workers accidentally killed and disabled off their jobs.

About 30 per cent of off-the-job fatalities happen in homes.

Chances were twice as great of an industrial worker being injured off the job than in a factory.

On the factory and in the home, "poor housekeeping" was the cause of most accidents, he said.

Manitoba Renews "Fitness" Pact

OTTAWA.—The Province of Manitoba and the Federal Government have renewed their agreement under the National Physical Fitness Act for another year, it was announced here.

Under the agreement, the Federal Government undertakes to share with the province the cost of carrying out a series of educational programs in Manitoba. Manitoba's first grant per year is $14,269—an amount worked out on a population basis in relation to a total fund of $225,000 per year for nine provinces.

Manitoba has participated in the National Fitness Plan since 1944, with the program being administered by the province's Department of Health and Public Welfare. Other provinces having agreements under the act are British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

What! Firemen Refuse To Answer Call

SAIN JOHN—it doesn't happen often but Saint John firemen refused to answer a call.

A frantic woman called the station and asked that equipment be rushed to her house immediately.

She wanted a mouse perchng atop her dining room china cabinet removed.

THE TILLERS

British Speed King To Visit Kelowna, B.C.

KELOWNA—Sir Malcolm Campbell is ready to come here to try for a speed record on Lake Louise. In his Blitzen III his jet engine goes through preliminary tests, he informs his Kelowna friend, W. T. Buss.

Mr. Buss has sent Sir Malcolm a scale map of Lake Okanagan, with indicated courses and information on wind and other atmospheric conditions.

Kelowna is continuing its campaign to raise $25,000 to finance the trial. Before he can get an export permit for his boat to leave Britain, Sir Malcolm must show financial arrangements are completed here. He is unable to export money from Britain.

T. Greenwood, board of trade president, said the drive is going well.

All the stories from the country-side indicate that 1947-48 will be put down as a "bad winter" for "winterers" even though we boated up to February 1 that it was "winterless Winter"—Lethbridge Herald.

Canada Selling Canned Meat To United States

OTTAWA.—Canadian packing plants have been given permission to export meat products of processed meat products on the United States market, it was disclosed.

An Agriculture Department spokesman said the meats involved were not in demand in Europe but that the demand had been made in Feb. 19 at the request of the Trade Department to permit Canadian plants to keep their name before the U.S. public with "token" shipments. One reason it had been possible was because the United Kingdom this year did not renew her contract for canned meat, involving about 20,000,000 pounds, last year.

The following types and quantities of processed meat products will be shipped to the U.S. by next June 30 under the arrangement: spreads and meat spreads, 579,000 pounds; pork products, 207,000 pounds, of which only 10 per cent. may be canned ham; solid pack other than pork, 281,000 pounds; steaks and boiled dinners, 883,000 pounds net.

World Could End In Many Ways And At Any Time

PHILADELPHIA.—Scientists at the Fels Planetaryum of the Franklin Institute are illustrating ways by which the world might come to an end.

The astronomers show some of the violent possibilities, such as an explosion of the sun which would burn all vestiges of life on earth, great volcanic eruptions or by sweeping comets.

The scientists coolly admit that at the end of the world, due to some unforeseen cataclysm, might happen at any moment.

"Our earth," they say, "is delicate and sensitive to the too hot and the too cold, the dry and the too wet, for life of the kind we know."

If something should happen to upset the existing conditions most of the higher life on earth would come to an end, they add.

The astronomers point out that other suns have suddenly burst into greatly intensified heat, and they assert it is not impossible that the earth's sun might also do it some day.

They also see no reason for ruling out the possibility of another Ice Age caused by a great volcanic eruption, because in the history of the world it has happened five times.

They also show how the moon might cause great tidal waves to sweep across the ocean and wash shore for hundreds of years—with the gravitational pull of the moon opening up gaping rifts in the earth's crust, followed by gigantic explosions as the sea invaded the banks of inland rivers.

The astronomers hope most of the possibilities for an end of the world are remote. But they insist that it is possible at any moment for a body as large as the earth or larger to hurtle through space and shatter our planet to bits.

Historians said the dates on the coins sparked the rumor that the gold pieces were a part of cache buried by Captain Kidd. The famous pirate was hanged in England in 1701.

F. M. Thompson Company

Now going into its 41st year of continuous service to the people, the firm of F. M. Thompson Co. has supplied clothing and foodstuffs to the residents in a most satisfactory manner since its inception.

This well-known establishment was established in Lille in 1912 and moved to Blairmore in 1912. The business is under the management of Mr. Fred M. Thompson, whose many years of experience make him fully conversant with all the best of merchandising methods.

F. M. Thompson Co. operate two well-stocked stores. In their main store one can see why they say "Everything to Eat" and "Everything to Wear", for here you will find a large supply of clothing and quality foodstuffs at prices that can't be beat. At their Greenhill store, you will find well stocked shelves containing the best in nationally known lines of groceries. Their stock is most complete, and here you never hear that alibi "Sorry, but we are out of that."

F. M. Thompson Co. is one of the most important businesses of this district, and is a source of income to the many families whose members are employed here.

A shopping excursion in Blairmore would not be complete without a visit to F. M. Thompson Co. The friendly and courteous atmosphere in their stores is the reflection of their genuine desire to render a real service to the community. The constant growth of this firm throughout the years is a tribute to its efforts to give honest and dependable service to its customers in the Blairmore shopping area.

BRITAIN PREPARES FOR NATIONAL HEALTH SERVICE

Details of how the new National Health Scheme will affect doctors and patients have just been published. Between now and July 5th, when the Act comes into operation, every man, woman and child making use of therapeutic will be asked to make their choice of a doctor from a list of practitioners kept by the local executive councils. For this purpose everybody who does not come under the present health insurance scheme will be given a medical card. Those already insured will automatically receive a new card and will remain on their present doctor's list unless they wish to change. Patients will have the right to change their doctors and a doctor can have a patient removed from his list by giving seven days' notice but the doctors of each area will be collectively responsible for all patients in that area.

Blood Donors Needed

Yours is the privilege of being a partner in the greatest co-operative humanitarian service in the world.

The Canadian Red Cross, realizing the need for an adequate blood transfusion service, free and available to all citizens, has made a survey of hospital needs in Alberta, as well as other Provinces in Canada. It has inaugurated the Canadian Red Cross Society's Blood Transfusion Service, and under this plan any patient requiring a blood transfusion received it entirely free of charge. Nor is there any charge made by attending physicians or hospitals for administering the transfusion.

The success of this service, which is designed for the benefit of every citizen, depends upon every citizen recognizing his or her personal responsibility to come forward as a voluntary blood donor while in good health. Only in this way can there be any assurance of an adequate supply available when sickness or accident strikes.

If you are between the ages of 18 and 65 and enjoying normal health, you can be a voluntary blood donor.

There is no pain or discomfort experienced in giving blood and it only takes a few minutes of your time. Diet is not necessary.

The mobile blood donor unit will be in Blairmore at the United Church Auditorium next Friday and Saturday morning (to accommodate mine workers), so register with Red Cross officers as soon as possible as many more names are needed for this humanitarian service.

BORDER CROSSING RULES

or he may obtain the card from a U.S. Immigration Officer at the Border. This card is good for any number of entries to the U.S. from Canada during a six-month period and is renewable. Each alien member of a family will, on a visit to Canada, require a Border Crossing Identification Card. Those entering Canada for a longer period than six months should obtain a re-entry permit from the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service.

$100 Purchases

Articles purchased in Canada under the U.S. tariff regulations, residents of that country returning from Canada may bring back-free of duty, articles aggregating up to $100 value acquired abroad for personal or household use, as souvenirs or curios but not intended for sale, provided they have remained in Canada for not less than 48 hours. Such exemption from payment of duty shall not be allowed more than once in 30 days.

Each member of a family is entitled to this exemption of $100. When husband and wife or parents and minor or financially dependent children are travelling together such exemption may be grouped and allowance made without regard to which member is the owner.

A reasonable quantity of foodstuffs, cigarettes and tobacco may be included in this exemption; also not more than 100 cigars and in the aggregate, not more than one wine gallon of distilled spirits, wines or malt liquors, providing the quantity is not prohibited by statute.

No Fees Required

It is absolutely unnecessary for a tourist entering Canada to pay any fee for an automobile entry permit or its extension as Canadian Customs officers will without charge assist the tourist in making out all forms.

General Directions

No difficulty or needless delay need be experienced by the motorists at the border if he observes the following:

1. Entering Canada:

(a) Report to the Canadian officer at point of entry into Canada. Freshmen citizens and alien residents of the U.S. should be prepared to present credentials establishing their legal residence in the U.S.

(b) Report to the Canadian Customs at any port of entry into Canada and obtain a permit for admission of automobile. Failure to report may result in seizure of the car. State license cards should be presented. Do not fail to declare any articles or goods that may be subject to duty.

2. Leaving Canada:

(a) Report to the Canadian Customs at a boundary port of exit and present your automobile entry permit for cancellation. (The tourist will greatly assist in the preparation of travel statistics if he will be kind enough to state the approximate total amount spent on his visit to Canada, if asked to do so. The supplying of this information is, however, entirely voluntary on the part of the tourist.)

(b) Report to the U.S. Immigration Officer at the point of entry into the U.S.

(c) Report to the U.S. Customs at port of entry into the U.S. and present State license card. All articles or goods purchased or otherwise acquired in Canada must be declared, whether exempt from duty or not.

Entry for Forty-Eight Hours

Automobiles may be entered at a Canadian boundary port of entry for touring purposes for a period not exceeding 48 hours by the owner surrendering his State license card, which will be handed to him on his return should he desire to leave at a port other than that at which he entered he must obtain a permit at the port of entry as described in the following section "Entry for 60 days".

Entry for 60 Days

Automobiles may be entered for touring purposes, free of duty or deposit, for a period of 60 days by obtaining a permit from the Collector of Customs at the Canadian port of entry. The motorist fills in a form in duplicate with certain particulars regarding his car, such as make, style, serial number extra equipment and license number. He is given a copy of this form which constitutes his permit and which he presents to the Collector of Customs at the port of exit when leaving Canada.

Extension for Period up to 6 Months

Should a motorist who has been granted a sixty-day permit afterwards desire an extension thereof he may apply therefore to any Collector of Customs, who upon being satisfied as to the bona fides of the applicant as a tourist and that the car will be used by him for touring purposes only, may extend the permit for the further period applied for up to six months from the date of admission without bond or deposit being required.

Entry for Six Months

Should a motorist on entry to Canada desire a permit for a period in excess of 60 days, the Collector at the Customs port of entry, if satisfied as to the bona fides of the applicant as a tourist may issue a permit for the period applied for, but not exceeding six months, under the conditions applicable in the case of admission for 60 days.

Note

Collectors of Customs are not empowered to grant any extension or renewal of permit at the expiration of six months. Should an unforeseen delay occur, prolonging the time of stay in Canada beyond that period, the Department of National Revenue, Ottawa, should be communicated with at once.

Vehicles equipped with mobile telephones may enter Canada only if the installations are sealed by Customs so as to prevent operation. The seal will be removed on report outwards.

MODERATION

• • • THE WISDOM OF Maturity

True, we are a young country. In less than a century we have risen from colonial youth to nationhood of a stature enjoyed by no other people of our numbers.

Canada has earned this. Through the years we have kept our sense of values... been moderate in our pleasures... moderate in our thinking.

Today, we continue to bear ourselves with the self-respect of a moderate people. We are moderate in our spending, in our thinking... moderate in our pleasures... moderate in all things.

We are young, yes. But we have come of age, for moderation is the wisdom of maturity.

SPINS IN FROM 3,000 FEET, PILOT, 21, SURVIVES—A miracle saved Ray Holland, 21, in a plane crash at Tillsonburg, Ont., witnesses said later. Spinning in from 3,000 feet, Holland's light plane crashed along a railway line and slid into a factory wall, as shown here. Holland said that he couldn't get out of the spin. "I saw a lot of trees, smokestacks and buildings, and then woke up in a hospital," he said.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

Worth A Broken Jaw

By THOMAS W. TORIN

ISN'T every day that a fellow meets a girl like Mollie Ryan, but when a fellow like Timmy Murphy gets his heart set on a girl like Mollie things are bound to happen. And they did.

It was Tim's birthday and all six feet of him was celebrating. Not noisily, you understand, but in a good old Irish way. There had been a few fights which Tim had enjoyed a lot, he being one of the contenders in each fight, but no one had been seriously hurt and they all repaired to the nearest bar as soon as each brawl was over to have a few drops of cheer and tell each other what a good fighter he was.

Tim was not only big, he was friendly. The only time he fought was when he had nothing else to do. His Irish red eyes would sparkle and his red curly hair would bounce about as he weaved and ducked amongst the blows. His nose, which bore evidence of previous encounters, was always ready to take another right-cross. But all that changed on this particular birthday, and it was all because Mollie Ryan didn't like fighting.

Tim was whaling the daylights out of a lousy rooster which wasn't much bigger than he was when the incident happened which changed Tim's life.

There was quite a crowd around watching the bout which was taking place in front of Dugan's. Two or three spectators were watching out of the fun, because they were delighted to watch for the cops. They watched for the cops, all right, but they let Mollie Ryan through. That's what changed both the course of a good fight and also the course of an Irish life.

Tim had just knocked the long-simmered man down for the third time when he heard a woman's voice. It wasn't so much what the voice said as the way it said it.

"They should put a stop to this sort of fighting," Doctor" said the voice.

When Tim heard it he turned his head in the direction of the sound. The voice fitted its owner perfectly. It was beautiful and so was she. It was cool and lovely, and so was she. He had never heard a voice so cool and lovely as all his life. "Please, doctor," he started to say, and then the blow fell.

It seems the longsimmered recovered from the last burst in the jaws and he wasn't bothered by beatings again. Tim had to pay for his sins just walked over and let one fly at Tim's busted-up profile. And that did it. Tim folded up like a tent in a tornado.

Minutes later, Tim woke up. It was really longer than that, but it didn't bother Tim and became he who woke up in heaven, he thought.

As he opened his eyes Tim looked into the eyes of an angel. Funny,

CANADIAN ARMY STRENGTH NOW STANDS AT 16,166

OTTAWA.—Army strength at April 15 was 16,166, about 4,000 short of its immediate authorized strength. The 16,166 figure compares with 15,400 at March 10.

Army officials said there will be no let-up in the current recruiting drive.

Actual authorized strength is 26,329 subject to a provision that it not exceed 20,079 for the time being.

"Just be patient, blue-eyes," said the vision, "you'll be able to talk as soon as your broken jaw heals. Meanwhile, get your mind off fighting—just something else."

Tim needed no encouragement to think of something else.

Weeks later Tim was back in his old haunts. But he wasn't the same. His jaw had healed up but he wouldn't fight. His old friends couldn't stand it. "What was that?" Tim asked.

The limousine looked familiar to Tim, and then he realized it was Mollie Ryan's car, and there she was. That was enough for Tim. He stopped his cab, pealed off his coat and started swinging.

Mother nature were two tough guys laid out cold and a uniformed chauffeur was thanking his lucky stars. Tim looked at the two toughs he had beaten and then he realized he had been fighting. It was between a chauffeur and two other guys. The chauffeur's car was parked and Tim's was still swinging.

This was the first time he had seen Mollie since he had been fighting. What would she think of his fighting?

He didn't have long to wait, for she suddenly appeared beside him, and once again he looked into the eyes of an angel.

"Tim," she said. "I'm glad you boy, you're not in any fight. Those fellows were trying to kidnap me and you stopped them."

Before Tim could say a word she kissed him—and it hurt.

Tim tried to talk but he only groaned. Mollie looked at him and then she realized he had been fighting. She took him to the hospital.

Tim couldn't say yes. He could only nod his head.

Scientists Test Value Of Peat As Soil Restorer

Active Experiments Being Held In Ontario And Quebec

OTTAWA.—A peat bog is probably a good place to attempt agriculture, but just the same Canadian peat promises to play an important part in agriculture, through soil improvement.

Scientists of the bureau of mines, who are charged with experimental investigation of peat, revealed that at the present time active experiments are being held on various plots set aside on Ontario and Quebec farms to test the value of peat as a soil restorer.

Depletion of soil humus is a situation which develops, where long continued erosion is present. On account of the high cost, commercial and domestic fertilizers cannot be used on a wide scale as the sole source of organic matter required to bring the soils back to top production condition.

Experiments have shown that better grades of peat are a good source of organic matter which modifies soils, making them more favorable for plant growth.

Peat can be used also with adequate additions of commercial fertilizers to remedy nutritional deficiencies. Restoration and maintenance of the organic matter in the soil by the peat humus therefore increases the efficiency of the fertilizer.
